These are the final and approved prototypes which are currently in the development stage

The smartphone screen shows the homepage of the AMES website. The header features a large, modern building on a hillside with the text "Association of Mechanical Engineering Students (AMES)" and "National Institute of Technology, Karnataka (NITK) Connecting gears of innovation across generations". Below the header, there are two sections: "Our Mission" with a circular icon and "Our Vision" with a lightbulb icon. Both sections contain placeholder text.
